Terms and Conditions of Online Classes

The participant has permission to be online and partake in Ally Walker Dance Academy online classes. The sharing of your online class link and password is strictly forbidden. The participant is wearing appropriate clothing that is suitable for dance.

Please ensure that you have cleared adequate spacing well before your class is to start. That, where possible, you will ensure webcams are located in a communal space like a living room - rather than a bedroom. If only a private space like a bedroom is available, you will commit to keeping the door open. All participants will be admitted from the “waiting room”. Please make sure your Zoom name matches your name on your registration.

Please sign-in at least 10 minutes before your class starts. Your instructor will “admit” you. To minimize disruptions to the class, the instructor will not be able to manage the waiting room and admit participants after the welcome discussion (5 min after class start time)

For safety reasons, your video must be on so that your instructor can see you. The participant will participate in these online dance classes at their own risk. You understand that, although rare, dance is a sport and injury may occur.

Ally Walker Dance Academy will not be held responsible for any injury that may occur during your online dance class.

Please note that the material in class videos is copyright and has not been approved for sharing, or for third party recordings. Sharing of the classes and zoom links and passwords are strictly forbidden (only registered participants will be granted entry into the ZOOM class each week) as well as the weekly video link. Not adhering to these rules will void your registration from the program.
